Art Unit: 1732

1.The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

Claims 42 and 43 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Rohde et al generally for reasons of record noting the following. The applied reference discloses making the CD in a non-round shape and it is respectfully submitted that the instant shape is well known in the art and would have been an obvious design choice over the heart shown in Rohde et al. Also, the information is stored on a "major elevational portion" of the surface of the disk of Rohde et al. le, the instant claims do not recite having any more than the single surface and are not being construed to have any more than a single elevational surface.

2.Applicant's arguments filed May 17, 2005 have been fully considered but they are not persuasive. Applicant submits that Rohde et al does not show a major elevational portion or the first and second pairs of spaced-apart outer side peripheries. However, it should be noted, that the instant claims are not limited to a disk having more than one elevational portion. Also, the exact non-round shape would have been well within the skill level of the art.

3.THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

Art Unit: 1732

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the mailing date of this final action.
